What Is a Cat Cafe?

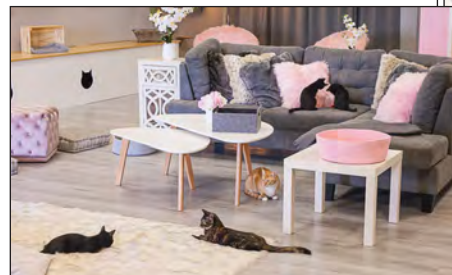

WENDY WHITE KNIFFEN AND RICHARD KNIFFEN, PUBLISHERS

Cat cafes—cafe-style venues that allow patrons to visit and interact with adoptable kittens and cats—started trending in North America in 2014.

In 2020, not one but two cat cafes opened in St. Augustine and, we are happy to say, are both thriving. On a recent visit with my sister and nieces, who were visiting from Melbourne, Fla., we had to wait our turn for access to the popular kitten lounge at Frisky Cat Café and the main cat lounge at The Witty Whisker Cafe. Not a problem, because the libations, cafe fare and boutique shopping was equally tempting!

Carla Forrest opened Frisky Cat Café in March of 2020 and Angeli Rodriguez and husband Dan Turner unveiled The Witty Whisker Cafe in June of that same year. The two cafes feature the same operational concept—the cafe offers a selection of beverages—including high-end coffee and wine and beer—and ready-made food selections such as pastries, muffins and the like. In both, a cordoned-off cat lounge is accessible for an additional fee to visit with the felines. Frisky

Cat Café is in a larger commercial plaza off of U.S. 1 South and features a rather glam lounge decked out in coordinating tones of pink, grey and white. Witty Whisker Cafe—located in a smaller complex off of U.S. 1 North and next to the historic district—features a more bohemian vibe decorated with batik fabrics, Spanish tiles and vibrant colors. In addition to cafe fare and frolicking with felines, both cafes also offer fee-based events, such a yoga and art classes, done in and among the company of the resident cats.

In addition to owning her cafe, Carla also runs the not-for-profit rescue organization Small Lives Matter. Angeli works hand-in-hand with another local not-for-profit organization called Feline Canopy of Care. Both all-volunteer organizations rescue hundreds of abandoned and feral cats and kittens annually and through a network of volunteer foster families, get all of the kitties vaccinated, spayed or neutered, microchipped and then adopted through the cafes and other online adoption sites. Both cat cafes process the adoption fees onsite and have united hundreds of felines with a “furrever family.” As of presstime, Witty Whisker Cafe has facilitated 480 adoptions and always shares a heart-warming Gotcha Day portrait on their Social Media.

We hope you will go visit both cafes when you can and support them on a regular basis—every sip, every purchase and every adoption, if you are so inclined, helps these two lovely ladies and the friendly felines whose lives literally depend on them.

Angeli Rodriguez published Drinks & Whiskers, a description of her process to open The Witty Whisker Cat Cafe and how-to manual to do the same, available on Amazon as well as in the cafe shop.

SAVOR Greater St. Augustine

The areas that we refer to as “Greater St. Augustine” offer convenience, plenty of waterfront dining options and a must-see revitalized beach town.

With U.S. Highway 1 connecting the paths to all parts of St. Augustine, this main artery is a commercial corridor filled with a wide selection of restaurants with easy accessibility and plenty of parking. A section of the highway is parallel with inland waterways featuring marinas and waterfront eateries, many accessible by boat or car. And, St. Augustine Beach isn’t the only game in our amazing town! Don’t miss a visit to the revitalized Vilano Beach Town Center with its fishing and sightseeing pier and mid-century modern architecture. This charming destination recently welcomed the unveiling of PESCA, a spectacular restaurant helmed by Chef Michael Lugo located inside the new Hyatt Place hotel. It is also the site of the Whiskey, Wine & Wildlife festival in November, featuring numerous tasting events highlighting restaurateurs from the area. Continue north on A1A and you’ll find spectacular oceanfront and riverside dining on the Intracoastal Waterway.

PESCA's rooftop bar

TOP TO BOTTOM AND LEFT TO RIGHT: St. Augustine offers so many places to dine overlooking the water and one of the finest is The Reef. This oceanfront restaurant features an ocean view from every table inside as well as tiered outdoor dining decks. Located in the elegant Camachie Cove Marina, Kingfish Grill offers fresh local seafood, sushi and views of the marina and Intracoastal Waterway. Newly opened PESCA is located in the heart of Vilano Beach Town Center inside and atop the new Hyatt Place luxury hotel, offering stunning 360-degree views of Vilano Beach, the St. Augustine Inlet and downtown St. Augustine from its rooftop venue. Enjoy bird and boat watching while you dine at Aunt Kate's located along the beautiful Intracoastal Waterway. If you're in the mood for a show, Mikato Japanese Steakhouse offers teppanyaki cooking at your table and one of the best sushi bars in town! For more than 30 years, Schooner's has been wowing locals and visitors alike with homespun comfort food and Southern specialties with a focus on the freshest local seafood.

SAVOR Anastasia Island and The Beaches

Anastasia Island and the St. Augustine Beaches area offer local and world cuisines in settings that feel a world away from everyday life!

The Black Molly Grill

Cone Heads Ice Cream

Beachcomber Restaurant

The beauty of St. Augustine's beaches is that they are close to the city center and historic district yet offer a paradisiacal escape—the light is different, the salt air is intoxicating, the vibe is more relaxed. The beaches offer a laid back lifestyle that represents what many think of as the ultimate goal. Why wait? The restaurants in our guide include coffee shops where bikini-clad patrons order up at the counter to neighborhood eateries featuring a variety of ethnic cuisines to family restaurants that, at certain seasons, seat throngs of bikers next to multi-generational families. Food is the connection for people from all walks of life!

Marble Slab Creamery

SAVOR Historic St. Augustine

Whether you dine Downtown or Uptown, St. Augustine city center restaurants offer spectacular settings, historic charm and world-class hospitality.

It's easy to understand why St. Augustine has been and remains so popular with visitors. Its charms are many, and the historic district and surrounding neighborhoods offer endless opportunities for exploration. From its fortress—completed in 1695 to repel invaders to this early Spanish colony—to spectacular Mediterranean Revival architecture and Victorian-era homes built for prominent families and business owners in the late 19th Century, the buildings that house our historic district restaurants have walls that, well, have a lot to say! Restaurateurs who call the historic neighborhoods of St. Augustine home are a special breed as they add their own stories to the city's history.

Lotus Noodle Bar

La Nouvelle

TOP TO BOTTOM AND LEFT TO RIGHT: Anticipation for the grand opening of The Wharf Restaurant—opening this Fall—is building and has been for years! This spectacular restaurant, which extends over the water on pilings, is built on the site of the old Santa Maria Restaurant, which perched there from 1949 to 2015. David and Cathy White and daughters Jennifer and Julie, owners of O.C. White's, The White Room wedding venue and Chatsworth Pub, to name a few of their holdings, have put their heart and soul into this project as they overcame numerous challenges. But the Whites have always proven where there's a will, there's a way. As a result, coming soon is what is sure to become the most iconic restaurant in St. Augustine. We can't wait either! Also new on the scene in the historic district are two chef-driven concepts. Lotus Noodle Bar is helmed by Chef Barry Honan, who trained and worked with several of the country's top chefs from coast to coast. He offers modern Japanese cuisine prepared with French technique and has the entire region buzzing. La Nouvelle recently launched in a restored Victorian-era home in St. Augustine's Lincolnville District. Michael Lugo, longtime chef-owner of Michael's in the Historic District, took over the space after Preserved closed its doors and transformed it into a sophisticated French bistro serving lunch and dinner. All these new ventures call for a toast! A frozen sangria (PICTURED TOP RIGHT) from Café del Hidalgo, located right on St. George Street, hits the spot!

ST. AUGUSTINE

IN ADDITION TO OUTSTANDING DINING,

St. Augustine offers distinctive shopping, plenty of fun things to do, world-class entertainment and top-notch services. Whether you are here on vacation or a local planning your staycation, St. Augustine has so many treasures to uncover.

SHOPPING IN THE OLDEST CITY

is like a super-sized treasure hunt! Exploring St. Augustine's historic neighborhoods, village-like town centers and shopping plazas is fun in and of itself because of the sunny climate and historic charm. But creative retailers, gallery owners and culinarians make "shopping local" in the Ancient City a must. You will find plenty to savor and acquire!

WORLD-CLASS ENTERTAINMENT

is another benefit to life in the Ancient City. Concerts featuring international artists entertain year-round at The St. Augustine Amphitheater and Ponte Vedra Concert Hall. Limelight Theatre, St. Augustine's acclaimed community theater, offers year-round comedies, dramas and musicals. Its Uptown San Marco location makes it a perfect dinner-and-theatre option.

FESTIVALS, HOLIDAYS AND COMMUNITY EVENTS, OH MY!

St. Augustine is a city with a big heart... and a great sense of community, not to mention fun! Check out the St. Johns County Visitor and Convention Bureau's calendar of annual events at floridashistoriccoast.com to see what is happening this week in the area! From art fairs to food festivals to farm tours, this city loves a celebration, particularly for the holidays!

Enjoy musicals, comedies and dramas on the main stage, live local music in the Black Box at Limelight Theatre.
